

Artist Update

compiled by Hank Lawrence

In God's Image

Diane & Lawrence Leach are better known as "In God's Image." Their music ministry is based on reminding everyone that they are made in God's image and that He loves them. They have a strong grounding in the Pro-Life movement. Currently they are sharing their Pro-Life inspired song "One in a Billion Choices" with anyone who would like to hear it. You can hear this song or ask them more about their music at their website myspace.com/InGodsimagemusic.

Aubrey Quintero

Aubrey is a new comer to the Artist Update corner. Aubrey just released her debut CD titled Redeemed. The CD contains ten original songs she and her producer David Judge put together. The songs carry the simple messages of forgiveness, redemption, love, grace and hope which need to be told over and over. The song styles are varied and contain something for everyone. You can check out Aubrey at her website aubreyquinteromusic.com or myspace.com/aubreyquinteronmusic.

Servant Song

Servant Song has announced that band leader Dave Gawron will be now doubling up on his musical chores. Dave will be playing the bass, as well as the keyboards and guitar. The band also recently signed a deal with the New England Christian CoffeeHouses website and play one coffeehouse per month. You can check out their music, or see when they are coming to your town by visiting them at their website, servantsong.com.

Critical Mass

David Wang is proud to announce that Critical Mass is part of compilation CD entitled Gift of God for the 2008 Eucharistic Congress to take place in Quebec City. The compilation CD has received nominations from both the United Catholic Music and Video Association and the Canadian Gospel Music Association for Special Event/Compilation CD in their respective awards ceremonies. Also David announced the beginning of pre-sales for the new Critical Mass CD, based on the theology of the body. You can contact David and forward him your information to insure that you are the first on the block to get the new Critical Mass CD as soon as it is available! catholicrock.com

Amanda Vernon

Amanda Vernon is currently working on her fourth CD titled Living His Story. It will feature more than twelve original songs and will debut sometime in January 2008. Amanda will also be busy giving concerts during Advent Season that will include music from her last release Something Worth Saving. You can check out more Amanda's music and find out how to schedule her for a concert at her website amandavernon.com.

Annie Karto

Annie's newest song "Into the Air," a tribute to Mother Angelica, has started a new area of music for her. Annie has also just successfully finished a song titled "Pilgrimage of Love" for Father Pete Rookey. She has started work on finding visual accompaniment for her song "I Thirst" which is dedicated to Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta. She believes that this is just another way of thanking God for these wonderful people and creating something beautiful for Him. You can check out Annie and all of her music at anniekarto.com. †

A promotional graphic for Aubrey Quintero's CD "Redeemed". It features a portrait of Aubrey Quintero with a decorative floral and star border. The text includes the artist's name, the CD title, a quote from Psalm 19:14, and website information.

Aubrey Quintero

"You are my redeemer" - Psalm 19:14

www.aubreyquinteromusic.com www.myspace.com/aubreyquinteromusic

Newly released CD...

Redeemed